

INTRODUCTION

What you are about to read will open your eyes to officials within our criminal justice system who are so corrupt that they would allow a sixteen year old boy to be sent to a maximum security adult prison for a crime they knew he had nothing to do with. For many of these officials justice has become gamesmanship. They do not care if the person they are convicting is guilty. They only care about marking up another win.

You will also see that you do not have to be a minority for them to create a prejudice against you and they will do so without hesitation if it will further their own agenda.

This is a story worth reading because it is something that is happening all too frequently and the public is largely unaware. If it could happen to this sixteen year old boy then it could happen to you or someone you love.

These officials feel free to play loose with the law, and the facts, because due to certain immunities that come with their jobs, they are safe from just about any punishment for their actions.

They so thoroughly destroyed the life of this sixteen year old boy that he is now a 51 year old man still sitting in a prison cell looking for someone to help prove his innocence in court. He has never asked anyone to believe he is innocent simply because he says he is. All he asks is that people look at the facts for themselves and form their own opinion.

I will start by sharing his statement of what happened with him during those fateful days. Much of what he says is verified through court records.

I will then explain how these officials created a prejudice against him that made convicting him much easier and made his search for justice so much harder.

In 2015 a retired federal agent, turned private investigator, decided to invest his own time and money into looking into the facts of this case. He found official reports that never appeared at trial and he interviewed witnesses in five different states. He was very thorough and I think when you see the evidence he uncovered you will have no doubt that this 16 year old boy was deliberately convicted of a crime they knew he had nothing to do with.

Also included, on this disc, are the trial transcripts and all of the other legal documents that the private investigator was able to uncover, as well as his reports and pertinent witness interviews.

If you read the trial transcripts, you will see in opening statements, and closing arguments, the prosecution admits that the case they are presenting is purely circumstantial.

There were no eye witnesses, no fingerprints, no DNA, or any other direct evidence connecting this sixteen year old to this horrible crime.

He does not claim to have been an angel. He smoked, he drank, he occasionally smoked marijuana, and he didn't attend school like he should have, but he never hurt anyone and I believe the evidence I will present will convince you that he never hurt anyone in this case either.

There is more evidence of his innocence but I am just going to list some of the more important items. I think it will be more than enough to convince you that he is innocent and the authorities know he is innocent.
